

Concerts @ Bignor
The Bernardi
Chamber Orchestra
Saturday 11th June
7.30p.m.

*An evening of English
classical music as part of the Shipley Arts Festival*

Ralph Vaughan Williams – The Lark
Ascending
John Rutter – Suite Antique
Paul Lewis and other classical composers in a rich late Spring concert in a celebration of English music.

The Bernardi Chamber Orchestra is made up of 15 international level musicians who hold principal positions with London orchestras and take time out in the depths of the Sussex countryside to perform

some quite exceptional music.

The Shipley Arts Festival, now in its eleventh year, has grown from strength to strength with performances in a number of Sussex churches and stately homes.

The concert at Bignor will feature Ralph
Vaughan Williams beautiful ‘The Lark
Ascending’, a major piece by this English composer who was president of the English Folk Dance and Song Society and whose interest in folk song was a great influence in his compositions. Other pieces will include movements from John Rutter’s emotive work ‘Suite Antique’.

This will be a packed evening of top quality English classical music by some of the finest musicians in the country.

Overlooking the South Downs
resplendent in their young green foliage this will be a concert memorable in many ways.

Tickets £15 from 01798 869454
or Chichester & Midhurst
Tourist Information Centres

(Bignor is 6 miles from Petworth, Arundel & Pulborough)

www.bignorchurch.org

Concerts @ Bignor
The Bernardi
Chamber Orchestra
Saturday 11th June
7.30p.m.

*An evening of English
classical music as part of
the Shipley Arts Festival*

Ralph Vaughan Williams – The Lark
Ascending
John Rutter – Suite Antique
Paul Lewis and other classical
composers in a rich late Spring
concert in a celebration of English
music.

The Bernardi Chamber Orchestra is
made up of 15 international level
musicians who hold principal
positions with London orchestras and

take time out in the depths of the Sussex countryside to perform
some quite exceptional music.

The Shipley Arts Festival, now in its
eleventh year, has grown from strength to
strength with performances in a number
of Sussex churches and stately homes.

The concert at Bignor will feature Ralph
Vaughan Williams beautiful ‘The Lark
Ascending’, a major piece by this English
composer who was president of the
English Folk Dance and Song Society
and whose interest in folk song was a great influence in his compositions. Other
pieces will include movements from John Rutter’s emotive work ‘Suite Antique’.

This will be a packed evening of top
quality English classical music by some of the finest musicians in the country.

Overlooking the South Downs
resplendent in their young green foliage
this will be a concert memorable in
many ways.

Tickets £15 from 01798 869454
or Chichester & Midhurst
Tourist Information Centres

(Bignor is 6 miles from Petworth, Arundel & Pulborough)

www.bignorchurch.org