

A Sussex Countryman's Year

*From Lammas Day to Candlemas
via Lady Day, Midsummer
and Michaelmas*

*Another cornucopia of delight in music,
prose, picture images and old tales*

with

David and Jill Arscott, The Copper Family and Geoff Hutchinson (Rudyard Kipling performer)

at

BIGNOR CHURCH

on

Saturday 6th February at 7.30pm

Sussex books

Licensed bar

Wassailing

Tickets £ 11

01798 869454

A True Delight!

A Sussex Countryman's Year

*From Lammas Day to Candlemas
via Lady Day, Midsummer
and Michaelmas*

*Another cornucopia of delight in music,
prose, picture images and old tales*

with

David and Jill Arscott, The Copper Family and Geoff Hutchinson (Rudyard Kipling performer)

at

BIGNOR CHURCH

on

Saturday 6th February at 7.30pm

Sussex books

Licensed bar

Wassailing

Tickets £ 11

01798 869454

A True Delight!

A Sussex Countryman's Year

Following a sell-out Imbolc evening in January last year, this February we have put together another cornucopia of total delight under the capable hands of Sussex author, publisher and broadcaster David Arscott.

The Copper Family are renowned throughout the country for their old tales and songs of Sussex that go back generations, their classic Sussex humour and banter entertaining all those that have the pleasure of seeing their performances.

Geoff Hutchinson is not only a Rudyard Kipling enthusiast but his impersonation of this great writer and poet in the true Sussex genre is quite outstanding.

Jill Arscott will also be reading some of the classic prose and poetry of this beloved county and David will be using some of his many recordings of old Sussex folk from his years with the BBC.

This packed evening will be rounded off with the Wassailing of the apple trees in Manor House and the odd sip or two of Sussex cider to bless the forthcoming year.

“A wonderful evening”

A Sussex Countryman's Year

Following a sell-out Imbolc evening in January last year, this February we have put together another cornucopia of total delight under the capable hands of Sussex author, publisher and broadcaster David Arscott.

The Copper Family are renowned throughout the country for their old tales and songs of Sussex that go back generations, their classic Sussex humour and banter entertaining all those that have the pleasure of seeing their performances.

Geoff Hutchinson is not only a Rudyard Kipling enthusiast but his impersonation of this great writer and poet in the true Sussex genre is quite outstanding.

Jill Arscott will also be reading some of the classic prose and poetry of this beloved county and David will be using some of his many recordings of old Sussex folk from his years with the BBC.

This packed evening will be rounded off with the Wassailing of the apple trees in Manor House and the odd sip or two of Sussex cider to bless the forthcoming year.

“A wonderful evening”