

Bignor Church
presents
The Karen Street
Quintet

Saturday 20th March 7:30pm

www.bignorchurch.org

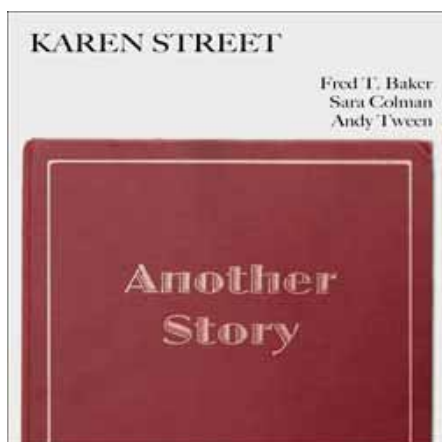

Karen Street (accordion, sax) makes a welcome return to Bignor, supported by Sarah Colman (vocals), Fred Theloni Baker (guitar, bass), Andy Tweed (sax), and Andy Hamill (double bass) making up the Karen Street Quintet.

Karen has just recently completed her latest album “Another Story” where she was joined by Sarah Colman, Fred T Baker and Andy Tween.

Hear a track (“The Gift”) from this album by visiting the Events page on the website.

Tickets £11
Licensed bar

Call 01798 869454
or Petworth Tourist Information Centre
(weekdays)

Karen Street

Karen is a noted composer of jazz sax and accordion works for soloists and ensembles. She is a prize-winning jazz player ; she has recorded and performed extensively, working with a Who's Who of well-known artists.

Fred T Baker

Fred plays both guitar and bass and has collaborated with Karen on several jazz albums. He has toured and recorded extensively and is a highly-respected teacher of jazz and progressive music.

Sarah Colman

Sarah has established a great reputation as a jazz singer/ songwriter. For 10 years, she sang with the harmony group “The Passion” and has sung with many famous jazz singers. She has recently completed her second solo album and has collaborated with her friend Karen on “Another Story”.

Andy Hamill

From jazz to pop, Andy has played double bass and bass guitar with many artists. He has produced several albums, and has released “Orange Roses” to critical acclaim. Soon to be released is his latest album with Jeb Loy Nichols called “Knock knock, town and country music”

Andy Tweed

As a member of Saxtet, one of the UK's leading saxophone groups performing their own compositions and arrangements, Andy has performed with many great orchestras and bands. He is also in demand as a sax tutor in several music institutes. He performs regularly with his wife, Karen.

