

In Concert

Chris Gilligan piano
Lee Goodall saxophone & flute

Bignor Church

Sat. May 14th 7.30

Linda Angelis, international jazz singer, composer and arranger is an absolute all-round entertainer with a delightful mix of vocals, trumpet and some quite outstanding lyrical musings, almost mystical in the message they contain, that will provide a great Spring concert at Bignor.

Songs taken from her CD Lady of Light, inspired by the late Princess

Diana, will feature as part of the evening.

Linda has played in over 30 countries including the Malta jazz festival where she later had her own radio series.

Her new record "Oh Lori" has just been accepted in a major French film and Linda's music is favoured by Clint Eastwood, who invited her for a concert at the famous radio station KRML, California. Her albums are also played on Jazz fm and radio stations worldwide.

Joining her on sax/flute is one of the finest musicians in the UK - Lee Goodall - who also toured with Van Morrison for several years and now runs a major recording studio.

Another Royal musician, pianist Chris Gilligan was invited to Buckingham palace to play with Linda for Prince Charles and his guests.
